

Professional Services

Providing People, Technology & Solutions

Benefits of CoreTech Professional Services

- Accelerate time-to-value of a virtual environment.
- Mitigate potential risks of deployment.
- Maximize return on investment in CoreTech products and solutions.
- Raise awareness and understanding of virtualization across an organization.
- Gain increased support from senior management.

Infrastructure Consulting
Managed Operations
Training Services
Application Management Services
IT Staffing
Turn-key and Project Solutions
Co-Source Services

CoreTech Professional Services provides quality people and customized IT solutions. We partner closely with our clients to become an extension of their organization. Working with our qualified technicians, CoreTech answers both the business and technology needs of your organization, allowing you to leverage the right technologies for your business needs.

We are committed to listening to our clients 'changing business needs and developing partnerships so our clients can focus on the everyday demands of expanding business, managing costs and increasing revenue.

CoreTech's areas of expertise include*

- Microsoft System Center
- Application Virtualization
- Desktop Virtualization
- Application Packaging
- Application Management
- Desktop refresh and upgrades

Each of these core competencies focuses on providing leading hardware and software enterprise solutions such as VMware, Symantec, Microsoft, Citrix and others.

Our Professional Services division provides Planning, Process, Implementation, Management and Operational Services with an unsurpassed level of flexibility for timely, cost effective and value-add solutions.

*but not limited to.

CoreTech Professional Services is supported by our experienced Staffing Solutions Department

The CoreTech Professional Services division is fully supported by our established and reputable IT staffing solutions division. This large base of technical resources provides the Professional Services division an edge to our clients for "Just in Time" resource and project demands. Coupled with our employee technical resources, CoreTech offers our clients speed and flexibility in acquiring the qualified people to get assigned tasks on time and under budget.

The Professional Services division manages CoreTech staff engaged in enterprise partnerships. CoreTech's unsurpassed reputation providing quality people and services translates into a better corporate ROI for our clients by reducing management costs with zero overhead management.

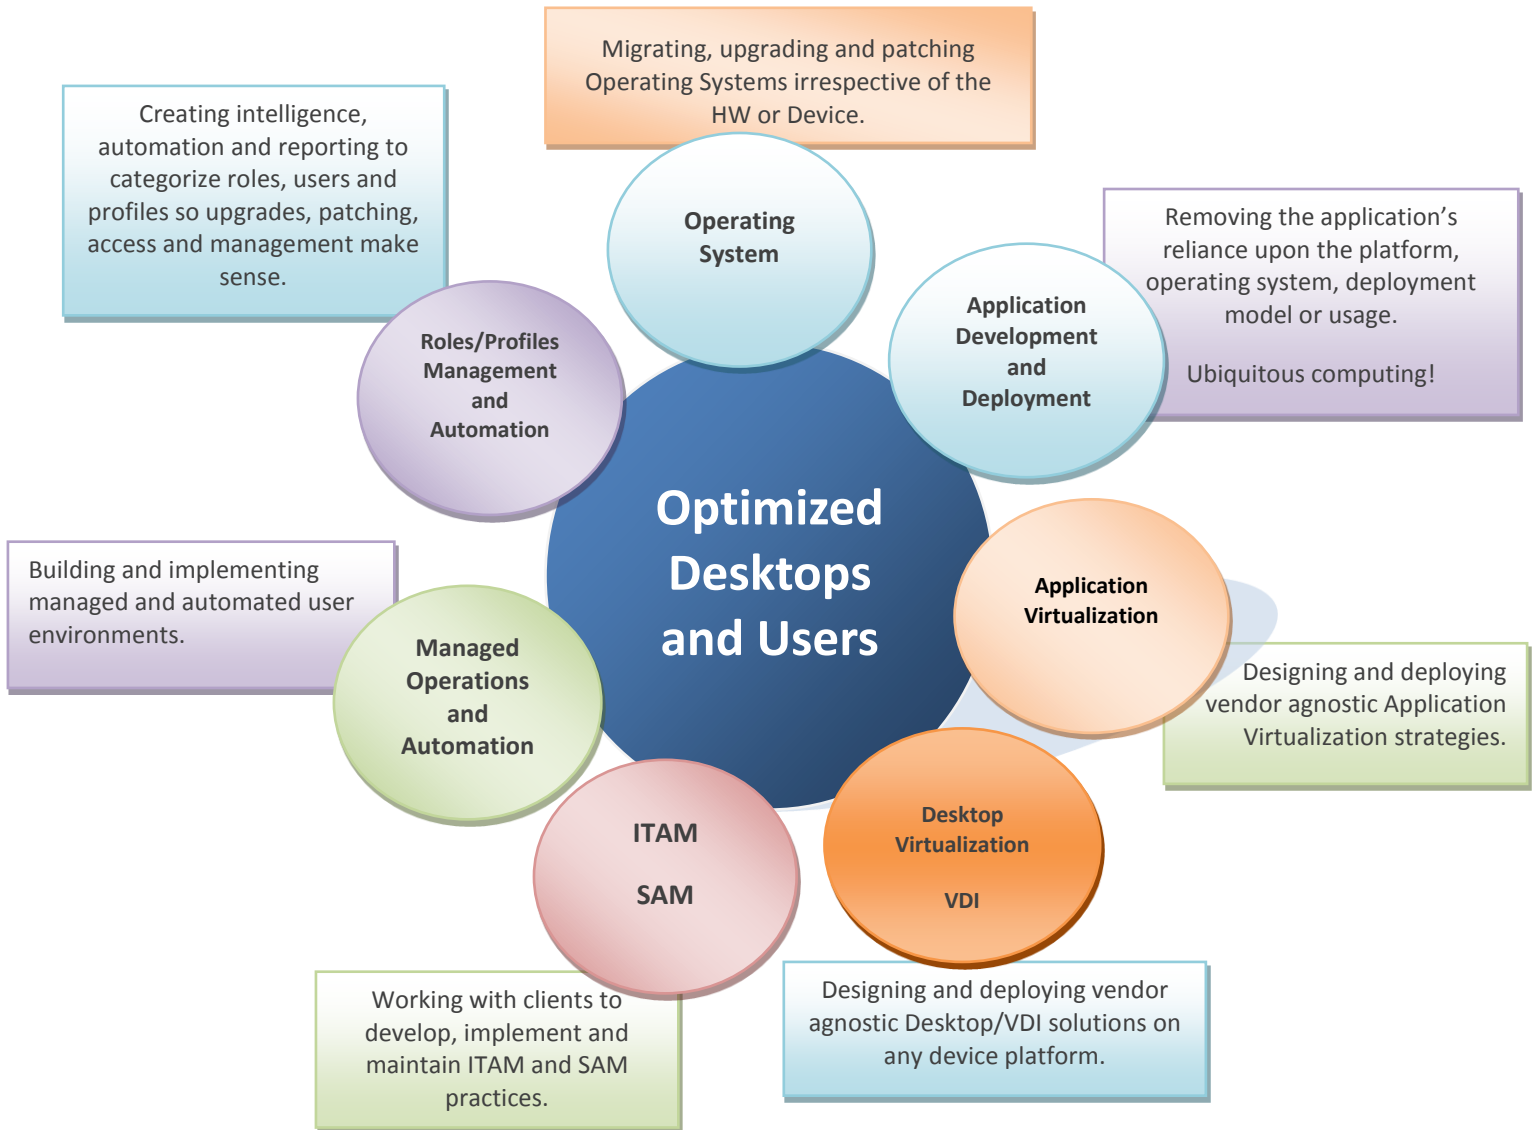

Through our Professional Services division we can provide clients with:

- Quality resources at competitive and consistent rates
- Volume discounts and a rebate program that will grow with your business demands and beyond.

Our Strength is Our People.

CoreTech's Professional Services offering is highlighted below. Our solutions are made to measure. We will work to understand your needs and deliver the right solution.

Reference Accounts and Certifications

Microsoft Partner
Silver Desktop

